Please provide at least two (2) working methods of guardian contact above (e.g. mobile and email). We will attempt to contact parent/guardians using these details in the leadup to the camp with important information regarding camp, bus timings, as well as providing receipts of payment, etc. If we are unable to reach you on your mobile after several days, (e.g. if the number is disconnected, or you repeatedly don't return our calls) it will indicate to us that these means are not an effective way of reaching you and we may be forced to cancel the camper's application for safety reasons. Unfortunately, we simply cannot take responsibility for your child unless we can be sure that we can contact you in case of an emergency. So please do provide us with good contact details that you will be monitoring both in the leadup to and during the camp.

Activity Consent and Release

I am aware of the classes and activities that the previously mentioned camper will be involved in and below is my signature of permission for camp attendance and participation. Climbing, abseiling or ropes course activities.

Caution

*When you climb, abseil or use a ropes course you are responsible for taking the time to learn safe techniques, and the proper use and limitations of each piece of equipment. Furthermore, I realise that climbing, abseiling or using a ropes course is a high risk, potentially dangerous sport. I therefore, knowingly accept this risk and agree to release the Seventh-day Adventist Church (Tasmanian Conference) Ltd. (ABN 61 111 101 583) and its employees and agents from responsibility for any injuries that I (camper) may suffer as a result of participation in such climbing, abseiling or ropes course activity.

TWEEN CAMP FAQ

Q. What and when is Tween Camp?

A. Tween Camp is an annual 6-day program run by the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Tasmania for 10-16 year olds from all over the state. It is designed to grow kids socially, physically and spiritually, as well as being great fun! It is held in the first week of the October school holidays. This year (2019) it falls on the 1st to the 6th of October. You can follow updates and promotional material at <https://www.facebook.com/TasSDAYouth/>

Q. Where is it held?

A. Tween Camp is held at Spring Beach Youth Camp in Orford, Tasmania. The camp is positioned at Spring Beach and boasts dormitory style accommodation, as well as a host of amazing adventure and team building activities including abseiling, a flying fox, archery, kayaking, a low ropes course and more! You can read more about SBYC and watch a promotional video on their website: <https://springbeachyouthcamp.com.au>

Q. How do the kids get there?

A. An inexpensive bus will pick attendees up from the Devonport, Launceston and Glenorchy Seventh-day Adventist Churches on the day the camp begins, and will return them to that spot on the day it ends. Or a parent or guardian can drop them off and pick them up from Spring Beach.

Q. Do the kids have to take tents and food like other church, school, scout and Pathfinder camps?

A. Tween Camp is a fully catered dormitory camp, and the 5-nights indoor accommodation with three square meals per day are included in the fees.

Q. What would a typical day look like?

A. A typical day would look something like this: reveille, room inspection, morning worship, breakfast, exercise time, an activity, lunch, another activity, dinner, evening worship, an evening activity, shower, lights out. It will be a very constant, full-on schedule with no need for hand-held games and other diversions.

Q. What will the kids be doing at worships?

A. This year our theme is "God's Army" and the camp is themed around encouraging young people to be strong young men and women of God. Mr Trent Keegan is an ex-army reservist and he will be sharing about how Jesus saves us and how we can stand strong for Him. Miss Alexandra Bobongie from Burnie will be organising some great songs also.

Q. What kind of equipment do the kids need?

A. A sleeping bag or linen, pillow, running shoes, warm clothes, older clothes that you don't mind if they get wrecked (enough for 5 days), toiletries, towel, swimming gear and a water bottle. On Friday night there will be a "formal military" themed banquet night also. Try to find your child a costume they might be able to bring along for this night. Army Disposal stores, second hand shops, costume shops and Spotlight are all great places to get such "formal dress uniform" costume items, depending on your budget.

Q. Can I trust the staff?

A. All staff are screened and have current Working with Children and Vulnerable People checks. Most of them are individuals who attended Tween Camp themselves as kids. No staff member is permitted to be alone in an enclosed cabin with a child at any stage. Cabin supervising staff sleep in cabins adjoining the campers' rooms so that they can monitor behaviour and curfew, but not in cabins with the campers. All staff that supervise and facilitate height-based adventure activities have current qualifications to do so.

Q. How much does it cost?

A. The standard price is $245 per child, plus $20 if they require the bus. This includes all meals, accommodation, 100% supervision and multiple amazing adventure-style activities each day. On school holidays it can sometimes cost more than that just to keep a kid at home! HOWEVER, if you make the effort to book before the 1st of July, your child will receive the early bird price of just $210 per child (plus $20 if they require the bus). Please note that any applications received after September 16 will be charged as a late application at $275 per child (plus $20 if they require the bus). No applications will be accepted after September 23.

Q. How do I apply??? Where do I sign???

A. Email wendyscott@adventist.org.au for an application or pick one up from your local Adventist school or church.
